

THE COMMONWEALTH.

KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

IN SENATE.

FRIDAY, March 22, 1861.
The Senate was opened with prayer by Rev. B. T. Lacy, of the Presbyterian church. The Journal of yesterday was read by the clerk.

PETITIONS.

Were presented by Mr. CHAMBERS (2); also a remonstrance, and appropriately referred.

A MESSAGE FROM THE H. R.

Was received, announcing the passage of several bills which originated in that House.

A MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

A message was received from the Governor by Mr. MONROE, Secretary of State, announcing the approval of sundry bills. Also a message communicating the majority and minority reports of the commissioners of Kentucky to the Peace Conference. Also a message vetoing the bill to amend the charters of the banks of Kentucky.

Mr. FISK moved that 150 copies for each Senator be printed of the reports of the Peace Commissioners: adopted.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. GROVER—Finance—A bill to repeal the act to amend the laws in relation to the registration of births, marriages, and deaths, and to make the registrar: ordered to be printed and made special order for Monday at 10 o'clock.

Mr. DELAVER—Finance—A bill for the benefit of Alfred C. Tanner: passed—yeas, 34; nays, 1.

A bill to repeal an act, entitled, "an act to appropriate money to the Western and Eastern Lunatic Asylums," approved February 9th, 1861, was taken up.

Mr. WHITTAKER offered an amendment making the repeal apply also to the Western Lunatic Asylum, at Hopkinsville. Mr. W. advocated his amendment, and warmly urged the repeal of the appropriation.

Mr. CISELL replied to Mr. WHITTAKER, and opposed the repeal at considerable length.

Mr. PENNEBAKER advocated the repeal briefly.

Mr. ANDREWS made a few remarks, in which he asked for information to enable him to vote intelligently; he only wished to do right.

Mr. WHITTAKER again spoke in favor of the repeal, and replied to Mr. CISELL; he read extracts from a report of Dr. Montgomery, the superintendent of the asylum.

Mr. DELAVER opposed the bill repealing the appropriation briefly.

Mr. FISK advocated the bill, and replied to Mr. DELAVER.

Mr. GLENN addressed the Senate in opposition to the bill, and replied to Messrs. WHITTAKER and FISK.

Mr. ANDREWS moved that the bill and amendment be recommitted to a select committee of Messrs. WHITTAKER, FISK, and RUST: carried.

HON. J. J. CRITTENDEN.

Mr. ANDREWS offered a resolution that a committee of three be appointed to wait on Hon. J. J. CRITTENDEN, and invite him to address the Legislature on national affairs, at as early a day as will suit his convenience, and report the result of their invitation to the Senate.

Mr. RUST moved an amendment to recommit the committee also to invite Hon. L. W. POWELL to address the Legislature.

After some discussion, Mr. RUST withdrew his amendment.

Mr. ANDREWS' resolution was then adopted unanimously, and Messrs. ANDREWS, GLENN, and GIBSON were appointed the committee.

VETO MESSAGE.

The message of the Governor vetoing the bank bill was ordered to be printed.

FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

Mr. READ offered a joint resolution that when the General Assembly adjourns on Wednesday, March 27, at 12 o'clock a. m., it will adjourn sine die.

the hour of meeting in the morning at 9 and adjournment at 1 o'clock, the evening session to commence at 3 and end at 6 o'clock.] The substitute was adopted, and the resolution as amended was then adopted.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. PENNEBAKER, under instructions, reported a bill to amend the militia law; made special order for Monday.

LEAVES GRANTED.

Leave was granted to bring in the following bills, which were appropriately referred: Mr. BRUNER—A bill to amend the law in relation to the public road from Brandenburg to Hardinsburg.

Mr. PENNEBAKER—A bill to authorize the appointment of interpreters for certain courts in this Commonwealth.

Mr. WHITTAKER presented reports from the two Lunatic Asylums and the School for Feeble Minded Children: ordered to be printed, all of them in one volume.

And then the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, March 22, 1861.
Prayer by the Rev. W. McD. ABBETT, of the Methodist church.

The reading of the Journal of yesterday was dispensed with.

PETITIONS.

Were presented by Messrs. H. H. SMITH, LEACH, (several hundred voters of Henry county calling for a Border State Convention.) DOWNING, BUCKNER, HARRISON, (sundry citizens of Bullitt county, against calling a Convention.) RATCLIFFE, DOBBS, LACEY, GALE, (sundry voters of Owen county, calling for a State Convention,) and appropriately referred.

BILLS PRESENTED.

Mr. IRELAND—A bill for the benefit of Elizabeth McKee, of Greenup county: passed.

Mr. CLEVELAND—A bill to revive an act establishing the office of county treasurer of Bracken county: passed.

Mr. ABELL—A bill to amend the charter of the Lexington and Southern Kentucky Railroad company: referred to the committee on Internal Improvement.

Mr. J. W. COOK—A bill to exempt guns from execution. [Allows each citizen one gun, exempt from execution.]

Mr. H. H. SMITH presented an amendment exempting one bowie knife, one six shooter, and one pair of brass knuckles: rejected—yeas, 3; nays, 65.

Mr. GILBERT moved to lay the bill on the table: rejected—yeas, 23; nays, 65.

Motions to refer the bill to the committees on County Courts and Religion were rejected.

Mr. RIDDELL offered an amendment providing that the value of the gun shall not exceed $50, and the provisions of the bill shall only apply to bona fide housekeepers: adopted.

Mr. WORD offered an amendment to insert after the word "gun," "and one barrel of whiskey": withdrawn.

The bill was then passed—yeas, 67; nays, 15.

A MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

Was received by Mr. WICKLIFFE, the Clerk, announcing the passage of sundry bills.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR.

A message was received from the Governor by Mr. MONROE, Secretary of State, announcing that he had approved sundry bills.

Also, the report of the majority and minority of the commissioners to the Peace Conference: ordered to be printed.

Also, a message vetoing the bill allowing the Bank of Louisville to establish a branch of said bank at Uniontown, and allowing the several banks of issue in Kentucky to issue bills of a less denomination than $5: ordered to be printed, and made the special order for 10 o'clock to-morrow.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The House then took up the bill to prevent the trial of civil causes at the April term, 1861, of the Bullitt circuit court.

Mr. D. P. WHITE moved to refer the bill to a select committee.

The bill was then rejected—yeas 36, nays 36.

Mr. SNEED moved to reconsider the vote rejecting said bill: adopted—yeas, 53; nays, 21.

Mr. MASSIE offered an amendment to the effect that the citizens of Bullitt county shall not collect debts from the citizens of Spencer county.

Mr. McELROY insisted that the amendment was not in order.

The SPEAKER decided that the amendment was in order.

Mr. McELROY appealed from the decision of the SPEAKER: laid on the table.

Mr. MASSIE'S amendment was then rejected.

Mr. HITT offered an amendment, dispensing with the March term, 1861, of the Carroll circuit court: adopted, and the bill passed—yeas, 40; nays, 25.

BILL REPORTED.

Mr. LANNOM—A bill repealing all laws authorizing the holding of magistrates quarterly, and circuit courts, until the 1st Monday in December, 1861: ordered to have its second reading to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

Mr. RIDDELL moved to reconsider the vote by which the House refused to dispense with the second reading: adopted, and the bill referred to the committee on the Judiciary, with instructions to report said bill on to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. GUDGELL offered the following joint resolution, which lies one day on the table, viz:

Resolved by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That when this General Assembly shall adjourn on Monday the 1st day of April next, at 12 o'clock, M., it shall adjourn without day.

Mr. BOHANNON offered the following resolution, which was adopted, viz:

Resolved, That the use of this Hall be tendered to Governor C. A. Wickliffe this evening at 3 o'clock, and to Governor C. S. Morehead at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of their speaking on the subjects now agitating the country, and explaining their course in the Peace Conference at Washington.

Mr. CARLISLE offered the following resolution, which was adopted, viz:

Resolved, That the committee on the Judiciary be and it is hereby directed to inquire into the propriety and expediency of providing, by law, for the appointment of real estate, or any interest therein, ordered to be sold under any mortgage, attachment, or other lien, and giving the owner of the same the right to redeem it, as in the case of sales under execution.

ORDERS OF THE DAY.

Mr. GOODLOE moved to dispense with the orders of the day, in order to allow him to present a resolution in relation to the Western Lunatic Asylum.

Before any vote was taken on the motion to dispense the House adjourned.

We understand that some of the particular friends of Col. W. C. Brooks have presented him with what will prove a very necessary and useful article when he takes the position to which he has been elected in the Ophidian Institute.—Low Journal.

[For the Commonwealth.]

A meeting of the people of Caldwell county was held in Princeton on the 16th day of March, to express their devotion to the Union, and their determination to uphold the Constitution. The unparalleled interest which the people feel in every movement looking to the perpetuation of our glorious Union and the settlement of our national difficulties, was evinced by the immense assembling together of citizens from all parts of the county, so that the large and spacious room of the court house was filled to overflowing. The meeting was organized by calling Dr. James A. Carr to the chair and appointing H. F. McNary secretary.

The chairman on taking his seat addressed the audience in a fervid and effective manner, arousing the enthusiasm of all present. He then read the following eloquent letter from the Hon. Archie Dixon, which was received with great applause:

LEXINGTON, KY., March 13, 1861.
GENTLEMEN: I am in receipt of your favor of the 11th inst., inviting me to address the people of Princeton and vicinity in behalf of the Union, on Saturday next. I regret that my health is such as to render it impossible for me to do so. I am suffering from an affection of long standing with the lungs, and I owe the citizens of Princeton and Caldwell county a speech in defense of the Federal Constitution and our glorious Union, and I will redeem the obligation as soon as my health and the weather will permit me to do so.

The news from Washington to-day is most cheering, and gives hope that all may yet be well with our country, and the Union saved. God grant that it may be so. Our motto should be, "Don't give up the ship," and, fighting for our country, for constitutional liberty, for our property in the Constitution, in the Union, in the American flag, in the capital of our common country, in the army and navy, in the public fortifications and public lands, and in all the glorious memories that cluster around the brow of our great and mighty nation, we must triumph. The Union must and will be preserved.

"Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just; And this be our motto, 'In God is our trust.'—And the Star Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave."

Very truly, your friend,
ARCHIE DIXON.

After which the following gentlemen were appointed a committee to draft resolutions expressive of the wishes of the meeting: R. B. Ratcliff, W. L. Pollard, J. Y. Chambers, Dr. D. Wyatt, S. W. Pickering, J. B. Broom, and F. J. A. King.

D. W. McGowan, Esq., was then introduced to the audience, who delivered a speech full of earnest and patriotic sentiments; sentiments, too, which "were evident from his fervent manner sprung from the very soul of the old patriot. During the proceeding the Princeton Band discoursed our national airs in the most delightful style, adding much to the entertainment of the audience.

The committee reported the following resolutions, which were adopted without a dissenting voice, amidst the most deafening thunders of applause.

Resolved, That our devotion to the Union continues unabated; that we still cherish a cordial and unimpaired attachment to it, and that we still look to it as the palladium of our personal safety and prosperity, and indignantly from upon the attempts that have been made to destroy it.

Resolved, That it is neither the interest nor duty of Kentucky, for any of the causes that now exist, to sever her connection with the Union; and that she should be without them. They are illustrated with beautiful experience, and contain the condensed essence of years.

MEDICAL CHEMICAL REFORM. ADVICE FREE.

New York Benevolent Infirmary.

ESTABLISHED 1856, and devoted to the cause of Medical Reform; to the diffusion of Medical Knowledge for the prevention of disease, and to the relief of those suffering and afflicted with Chronic and Venereal Disorders. To this end this Infirmary is endowed, in person, with sick and suffering throughout the length and breadth of our land to avoid the Poisonous Drugs, Extortion, and Ignorance of Professed Physicians, through which thousands and tens of thousands annually perish.

The following are some of the diseases we cure, not only at the Infirmary but in all parts of our country:

Consumption and Pulmonary Complaints, Fevers, Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Eye and Ear Diseases, Cancers and other Tumors, Jaundice and Liver Complaint, Seminal Weakness, and all Diseases of the Urinary and Sexual Organs, from whatever cause or of whatever nature. Our object will be to give relief to the afflicted by effecting in all cases a speedy cure.

Our rule is to charge nothing for advice and written prescriptions; but will furnish when requested the very best medicines at the lowest rates. These remedies are prepared in our own Laboratory, under the care of able Chemists, and are the most reliable known to science, including all the recent discoveries.

To all addressing us by letter, containing full account of symptoms and appearance of disease, age, occupation, &c., we will write a candid reply, with advice and directions for cure. Any fees sent in any form for advice will be devoted to furnishing medicine for the poor. In all cases medicine can be sent by mail or express if desired. Send for one or more of our works and judge for yourselves.

Also published at the Infirmary, to aid these objects,

THE COMMONWEALTH. FRANKFORT. J. H. JOHNSON, Editor. SATURDAY, MARCH 23, 1861. EIGHTH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT. For Congress: JOHN J. CRITTENDEN.

We are requested to state that members of the Legislature and others having business with Mr. Clint McClarty, Clerk of the House, and Mr. J. C. Wickliffe, Clerk of the Senate, will find them at No. 18, Merriweather's Hotel.

See the card of Col. J. Press Sparks, in another column.

We call the attention of our readers to the communication of "Franklin" in another column.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE LEGISLATURE.—The Senate yesterday, by a vote of thirty-three to two, resolved to adjourn sine die on Wednesday, the 27th. This is all proper enough, but we cannot understand it. Senators who voted for the resolution, in a minute after, asked leave to bring in new bills, knowing it to be utterly impossible for committees to report those bills; for the Senate to act on them; for them to be sent to the House, acted on there, and then be enrolled and examined by the Governor, before Wednesday. In fact, the business already commenced by the Senate cannot be completed by Wednesday. Then why introduce new business? If the country needs no more legislation, why legislate? If the country does need more legislation, why adjourn?

Most grave and learned Senate, we beg of you (as editor of the Commonwealth and not as one of your officers) to be consistent. If it is a meritorious thing to adjourn on Wednesday, do so, and take with you our blessing. If it is necessary to pass a few more laws demanded by the present state of the country, do it. Either course is possible and rational when taken by itself, but both combined, constitute a compound impossibility, which presents an aspect rather too ridiculous for even the purposes of "humor."

Colonel George B. Hodge.

We notice that the Frankfort correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial makes a doleful attempt to be funny at the expense of Col. Hodge. The point of his remarks are based upon the assumption that the course of Col. Hodge in this Legislature has been vacillating and inconsistent. Although we cannot indorse all the opinions held by Col. Hodge, we are an admirer of that gentleman, and have watched his legislative course with great interest. It is but simple justice to him, to say that the statement of the Commercial's correspondent is utterly devoid of truth.

Before the Legislature adjourned in February, Col. Hodge took bold and decided ground against secession. Since then he has not by vote or speech indicated that he has changed his mind on that question.

YANISMO.—It is a remarkable fact that the morning after the Ophidians held their Convention, not one of them was to be found in Frankfort. They seceded; but how they went and where they have gone, is a mystery. It is probable that they are teaching somewhere. But what made them abandon the poor ignorant Legislators? They came here to instruct and became instructed. They came here to take Kentucky out, and took out themselves. They came here to protect the honor and interests of Kentucky and passed a string of submission resolutions. And they have gone! We hardly had time to say we had them, before we were called upon to mourn their departure. They gave us one comforting glimpse of their red heads, and then seceded. The great question now is, where is the convention of pedagogues, which

"Like an angel's wing through an opening cloud, Was seen and then withdrawn."

The secession society have surprised us in one particular, which, with characteristic candor, we proceed to admit. We thought they commenced as low down and as ridiculous as human beings ever get to be, but they have, with that indomitable energy which characterizes a jackass in his onward progress toward a peak of oats, steadily continued to get down lower and become more ridiculous, until they culminated here in the 20th, when they became too minute for the naked eye. We trust that the society will resurgam until it becomes entitled to our notice, for it is one of the little things that has afforded us a great deal of amusement.

THE GOVERNOR'S VETO.—On Monday morning we shall republish the very able address to the Governor, prepared by a committee appointed by a convention of the people of Adams and the surrounding counties. This address contains many good reasons why the bill vetoed by the Governor should be come a law. It also presents some arguments worthy the consideration of this Legislature. We trust that no action will be taken on the veto message until the Legislature has an opportunity of reading this address, and other evidences of the necessities and desires of the people of Kentucky.

SENATOR PUGH GOING SOUTH.—A letter writer says that ex-Senator Pugh, of Ohio, has decided, as soon as he can close up his business at Cincinnati, to remove to some one of the southern States, where he intends to apply himself solely to the practice of his profession.

The following extract is taken from a letter of a distinguished citizen of Georgia (who was a Breckinridge elector) to a gentleman of this city:

MORGAN, Calhoun county, Ga.
I tell you I think the people here are mad on the subject of secession; they have ruined themselves by closing slavery within the Confederate States, unless Lincoln is a greater ass than I think he is.

If he has half the sense a President ought to have, he will easily retain all the States that are now in the United States. What then will slavery be worth in the border States? Emancipation will be only a question of time. The Confederate States will be powerless to extend or even protect the institution. Taxation now coming down with crushing force will be unbearable very soon, free government will be a romance of the past. But against my convictions of right, against my voice, I have seceded, and now, being a soldier, I am ready to sacrifice my life for the honor and independence of my country. My company is under Gov. Brown's control, and we may be ordered to Pickens or Sumter by a call of President Davis or Brown at any time. There is no thought of re-union. We are forever gone and no mistake. It makes me exasperated to think of it. I know we have acted precipitately; and though we may face well, coming posterity will look beneath the lead of a bad government. Our government will not continue a Confederacy a great while; the spirit of faction is rampant, being only curbed now by the threatening prospect of war; but retire it is impossible, delay is ruin. The seceder as "Cotton is King," has frenzied the people; we forget kings are often forced to abdicate.

A SUGGESTION.—Being personally friendly to many of the ophids, we take the liberty of advising them to insure Blunt, Duncan's politics in some office which takes risks on combustible and uncertain property. You have him now; but where will he be in two months? Bet a hat you can't tell. We had him all last summer, and intended to make something "outen him," but one day when we wanted him, he had stepped out—seceded—taken a fort. You have him now, and feel very big over him, but to-morrow you may be bereaved like us! A word to a fool is sufficient.

A VERY HANDSOME PRESENT VERY WORTHY BESTOWEN.—We yesterday saw a beautiful ebony gold-headed walking cane bearing the following inscription: "To Col. Wm. D. Lannom, from S. I. M. M." Should any one take a notion to cane us we hope they will follow the worthy example set by the editor of the Yeoman in bestowing this little attention upon our worthy friend from Hickman. No speeches were made on the occasion, because the parties were (probably) too full for utterance.

We regret that the Governor conceived it to be his duty to veto the bill authorizing the banks to loan four millions of dollars, redeemable in two years from the date of the issue. The veto message was delivered to the Senate yesterday, and ordered to be printed, but was not read. We suppose of course that the Governor has discovered some valid constitutional objection to the bill. The message will be before the public to-day, and until we peruse it we forbear further comment.

If we were not afraid, we would suggest to the remains of the fabulous convention which concentrated here on the 20th, that with their General Twigg's principles they also adopt the hair dye of that distinguished traitor. Red heads are very good in moderation, but when you get a room full of them, it is very trying to the optics of staid old gentlemen like us, who prefer the Union to an office.

Obituary.
The Ophidian party and the Charleston floating battery shared the same fate—i. e., broke in two in the middle; and for the same cause—i. e., having all the big guns on one side—i. e., the columbiads, Duncan and McKee. They both went down—neither could swim, consequently their future associations will be with the mermaids of Charleston bay and of posterity. Brilliant but fleeting institution—Vale!

A gentleman lately arrived at Washington from Montgomery, Alabama, states that the new slaveholding Confederacy does not promise well. The Charleston Mercury snarls and bites. Mr. Slidell refuses a foreign mission. Meanwhile the Union men are lying in wait, watching the opportunity to spring upon their betrayers.

VOTE OF HARRIS COUNTY.—We are indebted to W. T. Samuels, Esq., the efficient clerk of the Harris county court, for the official vote of that county for Judge of the Court of Appeals:

Southern Rights in the Union.

Mr. Editor: As all the good citizens of Kentucky are in favor of the rights of the South, and opposed to coercion, I desire to call the attention of the calm and sober citizens of all parties, in Franklin county, to the propriety of holding a county meeting at an early day to consult as to the formation of a party in favor of Southern Rights in the Union. This party would have no opponents except those who are undisguisedly for secession, cause or no cause. I feel assured that a party in favor of Southern Rights in the Union, and opposed to coercion, would not have one hundred opponents in this county.

Who seconds this suggestion?
March 22, 1861. FRANKLIN.

NO EXTRA SESSION IN NORTH CAROLINA.—The Fayetteville (N. C.) Observer, of Thursday, states that Governor Ellis has decided not to call the Legislature of that State together unless something more urgent than now exist should occur to render an extra session necessary.

A CARD.
Editor Commonwealth: I was informed by a respectable gentleman of Henry county that I was appointed a delegate to the Convention which met in Frankfort on the 20th inst., for the purpose of coercing the Legislature into steps looking to a dissolution of the Union. I came to Frankfort on business on the 20th, and many old friends and acquaintances met me, and asked me if I was a member of the Convention, supposing that I was. To correct such an erroneous impression I write this notice to inform the people generally, and the followers of Yancey and the disunionists in particular, that I have no sympathy with that Convention, or with any person or set of persons whose object is to overthrow or destroy this glorious Union. I am for all our rights in the Union, and not for destroying it. I think any attempt to influence the Legislature by a few disunionists and disappointed politicians, who choose to meet here to overthrow them, is an insult to them and the whole State. I was born and have lived under the Stars and Stripes up to this time, and I am not now willing to exchange them for any position which the rattle-snake or a dismembered confederacy can give me. Under the auspices of Heaven and the precepts of Washington, let Kentucky be the last State to give up the Union.
March 22, 1861. J. P. SPARKS.

The Act for the benefit of Sheriffs, &c.
We have heretofore published the following act, but publish it again by request of several members of the Legislature:

142. An act allowing further time to the sheriffs for the benefit of tax-payers.
Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That the sheriffs of this State who have not finished paying up their State revenue, shall have the further time until the first day of June next to finish paying revenue into the State Treasury, without incurring the penalty of the law for failing within the time now prescribed.

2. Provided that the sheriff who accepts the benefit of this act shall be required to pay in and report monthly on oath to the State Auditor, the amount of revenue that has been collected by him for each month. And provided further, That any sheriff failing to comply with this provision, shall not be entitled to the benefit of this act, nor until his securities have entered upon record their consent before their respective county clerks. Provided further, That any sheriff availing himself of this act, shall pay interest on the balance due from each, at the rate of six per cent. per annum from the 15th of January, 1861, till paid. Provided further, That such sheriffs as have not paid into the Treasury at least thirty per cent. of the net amount of revenue of their respective counties, shall not receive the benefit of this act until said thirty per cent. at least shall have been paid. Provided further, That no sheriff shall be entitled to the benefit of this act, until he files in the Auditor's office his affidavit, in substance, that he has not used for individual purposes, since the 15th of January last, any portion of the revenue by him collected, belonging to the State.

3. That this act take effect from its passage.

Green County for the Union.

We, the undersigned voters of Green county, knowing certain persons are making an effort to induce our Legislature to call a State Convention for the purpose of precipitating Kentucky into secession or revolution, and believing such a Convention to be unconstitutional, and that its cost would be a useless expense and burthensome tax upon our people; that it could result in no possible good, but that it would bring upon us irreparable injury—we, therefore, most respectfully and earnestly request our Representative, Dr. D. P. White, and our Senator, Dr. C. J. Walton, to vote against the call of such Convention, and against any and every measure, the design of which is to precipitate Kentucky into secession or revolution.

GREENSBURG, Ky., March 19, 1861.

MESSRS. EDITORS: The above petition was circulated yesterday for the first time, at the various precincts of our county, and received about four hundred names—that being a greater number than all the votes cast for the different candidates for Appellate Judge. The petition is still in circulation, and will be forwarded to our Representative, Dr. D. P. White, so soon as a majority of the voters of the county sign it, which they will do whenever they have the opportunity, as not only a majority, but an overwhelming majority of our citizens are decidedly opposed to anything like secession.

UNION.

Attention, Military!

The members of the Legislature and citizens generally are invited to witness, at 3 o'clock on this Saturday evening, March 23d, an experiment in firing artillery, by an attachment, at the rate of from fifteen to twenty shots per minute. The experiment will take place on the hill immediately above the State Arsenal. WILLIS E. MOORE, mar23dt* Patentee.

Notice.

The finest pictures in the city are made at the Mammoth Car, corner State House square. Prices ranging from 25 cents up-wards; fine cases one half the usual price.

The opinion is universal at Washington that an extra session of Congress will be called very soon.

We would call the attention of those suffering from Consumption, Bronchitis, &c., to an advertisement in another column of this paper, of an important discovery for the cure of those diseases, now introduced for the first time to the American public by Messrs. Leeds, Gilmore & Co., of New York.

OBITUARY.

Died, on the 18th inst. in this county, Dr. A. M. BLANTON, in the 38th year of his age. He was born in Frankfort, where he was principally educated, studied medicine, and graduated with honor at one of the colleges in Philadelphia; practiced a short time in Frankfort, and when the war with Mexico was brought on, he was commissioned surgeon's mate, went with the Kentucky troops, and was at the battle of Buena Vista, where he rendered efficient service; returned, resumed his practice, and married in '48; was rising in his profession, but to better his condition, determined to make an adventure in California. Between '59 and '60 made three trips across the plains with stock, and spent between three and four years in that country, farming and trading. Returned home, and in the spring of '60, moved to Jackson county, Missouri, and located on a farm. His health soon began to fail, brought on by his toils and exposure in Mexico and California. In the fall of '60 he returned to Kentucky to die. He lingered in a feeble condition until this time. His character was without a blemish, and his prominent traits were generosity and determination to succeed in every enterprise in which he engaged. A wife and two children survive him.

To CONSUMPTIVES AND THOSE AFFLICTED WITH DYSPNOEA, NERVOUS DEBILITY, HEART DISEASE, FEVER AND AGUE, OR CONSTIPATION.—The undersigned, now seventy-five years old, has for years devoted his time to curing his Parishioners and the poor in New York of these dreadful complaints, which carry thousands and thousands to an untimely grave; he has seldom failed to cure all who have applied to him for relief, and believing it to be a Christian's duty to relieve those abroad, as well as at home, he will send to those who require it, a Copy of Prescriptions used, (free of charge,) with directions for preparing and using the same. Also, rules on Diet, Bathing, Ventilation, and Exercise for the Sick; they will find these remedies, a sure cure for Consumption, and all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, Fever and Ague, Constipation, Heart Disease, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, and Female Complaints, and he hopes every one afflicted will send for a copy, as it will cost nothing, and those suffering should apply before it is too late. These Prescriptions are used by the most eminent Physicians in London, Paris, and New York. Those wishing them will please address

CONSUMPTION. The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Treatise," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually averted off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

THE ENTERPRISING

PROPRIETOR OF

CHESTNUT GROVE

WHISKY

C.W.

The enterprising proprietor of CHESTNUT GROVE Whisky (The Purest Medicinal Agent ever known) has furnished the community with a stimulant Pure, Healthful and Invigorating, at the same time a mild, delicious beverage. It is calculated to do away with the vile drugged stuff that is palmed off on the community, and which is injurious to body and mind. In addition to the certificates beneath, he has received a Diploma from the State Agricultural Society, and additional testimony from Dr. Jackson, of Boston, who testifies under oath to its absolute purity.

CERTIFICATES.

Philadelphia, Sept. 9th, 1858.

We have carefully tested the sample of Chestnut Grove Whisky which you sent us, and find that it contains none of the Poisonous Substances known as Fusil Oil, which is the characteristic and injurious ingredient of the whiskeys in general use.

BOOTH, GARRET & CAGAN, Analytical Chemists, New York, Sept. 3, 1858.

I have analyzed a sample of Chestnut Grove Whisky, received from Mr. Charles Wharton, Jr., of Philadelphia, and having carefully tested it, I am pleased to state that it is entirely free from poisonous or deleterious substances. It is an unusually pure and fine flavored quality of whisky.

JAS. R. CHILTON, Analytical Chemist, Boston, March 7, 1859.

I have made a chemical analysis of commercial samples of Chestnut Grove Whisky, which proved to be free from the heavy Fusil Oils, and perfectly pure and unadulterated. The fine flavor of this Whisky is derived from the Grain used in manufacturing it. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYS, M. D., State Surgeon, No. 16, Boylston Street.

For Sale by C. WHARTON, Jr., Sole Principal Agent, No. 116 Walnut street, Philadelphia. nov23 w&twf.

THE KENTUCKY FARMER.

ONLY ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM!!

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE!!

THE SECOND VOLUME OF "THE KENTUCKY FARMER" closed with the month of June, and the Third Volume commenced in July last. We promised two years ago to try and give to the Agricultural and Stock Raisers of Kentucky a paper worthy of their patronage. We put the question now to every one of its patrons: Have we redeemed that pledge? Have we given you a fair equivalent for THE DOLLAR, which was paid for the KENTUCKY FARMER? If so, let every one of our present subscribers renew their own subscription, and send us one more additional name for the THIRD VOLUME.

The receipts for the First Volume about paid the expenses of its publication. We promised our patrons that we would publish ONE VOLUME whether we obtained a sufficient amount to pay its expenses or not. We redeemed that pledge. The subscription list increased by all of the prominent physicians, chemists, and connoisseurs, as possessing all of those intrinsic medicinal qualities (tonic and diuretic) which belong to an OLD and PURE Gin. Put up in quart bottles and sold by all druggists, grocers, &c.

L. WEITZEL,

Wholesale and Retail Confectioner,

HAS just received and opened, at his Establishment on St. Clair Street, Frankfort, Kentucky, where he will manufacture and keep on hand a variety of Fine Cakes, Preserved Fruits, Pies, Candies, Candy Toys—in short, everything that properly belongs to a first-class Confectionery Establishment. He pledges himself that every article manufactured by him shall be of the very best quality.

Families can be furnished, either for weddings or parties, with every article suitable for such occasions, upon the shortest notice and upon the most reasonable terms.

He will also keep the very best of all kinds of Wine which he will sell by the bottle or by the dozen bottles.

He will also supply those who may wish to purchase at wholesale, every article manufactured by him, on as reasonable terms as the same article of like quality can be purchased at Louisville or Cincinnati.

He asks a fair trial, and he feels assured that he can and will render universal satisfaction.

Frankfort, Dec. 28, 1859.

LOOK AT THIS!

M. L. PIERSON,

MANUFACTURER OF AND DEALER IN

CHOICE CONFECTIONERIES,

St. Clair Street, Frankfort, Ky.,

(At the old stand of T. P. Pierson.)

THANKFUL for the very liberal patronage I have received since the above establishment was opened, I have to say that no exertion on my part has been wanting to supply the increasing demand for Cakes, Candies, Pyramids, Ice Cream, &c., on the shortest notice and most reasonable terms.

I am also agent for Clark's Revolving Looper Sewing Machines—one of the best and cheapest machines now in use. Price $38; Hammer extra.

ICE! ICE! ICE!—The greatest accommodation yet—can be had at my Confectionery at any time from 5 o'clock, a. m., until 9 o'clock, p. m.

March 21, 1860. M. L. PIERSON.

W. A. GAINES,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL GROCER,

AND DEALER IN

Hardware, China, Glass, and Queensware. Wood and Willow Ware, Cigars and Tobacco.

Also, AGENT FOR ALL KINDS OF

AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS,

SUCH as Reapers and Mowers, Horse Powers, and Threshers, Ciders Mill, &c., &c.

I am also the exclusive Agent in this county for the CLAYTON PATENT, which is a new and improved out-joint, and greatly superior in point of workmanship and in every other particular to any other fan in use.

J. J. BUTLER'S

EXCELSIOR FLUID INKS.

Mercantile, for general purposes,

Record, for Ledgers and Records,

Copying, for Letter Press,

Carmines of brilliant hue.

CELEBRATED FOR

1st. Intense black color. (at first of a greenish blue.)

2d. Easy flow from the Pen.

3d. Permanency, (will never fade by exposure.)

4th. Economy.

(EXPLANATION:—These Inks can be satisfactorily used to the last drop. Other domestic Inks in a brief time grow too thick for use, and are fit only to be thrown away before half consumed.)

The Carmines may be exposed to the action of the air without injury.

Facts Confirming the above Qualities:

1st. These Writing Fluids are now in general use throughout the United States, with an increasing demand.

2d. They have been analyzed by Dr. Chilton, the celebrated Chemist of New York City, and the substance found in quality equal to the best imported English Fluids. Manufactured by J. J. BUTLER, Agent, No. 29, Vine St. Cincinnati, O.

KEENON & CRUTCHER are the Agents of the Manufacturer in Frankfort, and will supply Retailers at manufacturer's wholesale prices with the addition of carriage.

THE KENTUCKY FARMER.

ONLY ONE DOLLAR PER ANNUM!!

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE!!

THE SECOND VOLUME OF "THE KENTUCKY FARMER" closed with the month of June, and the Third Volume commenced in July last. We promised two years ago to try and give to the Agricultural and Stock Raisers of Kentucky a paper worthy of their patronage. We put the question now to every one of its patrons: Have we redeemed that pledge? Have we given you a fair equivalent for THE DOLLAR, which was paid for the KENTUCKY FARMER? If so, let every one of our present subscribers renew their own subscription, and send us one more additional name for the THIRD VOLUME.

The receipts for the First Volume about paid the expenses of its publication. We promised our patrons that we would publish ONE VOLUME whether we obtained a sufficient amount to pay its expenses or not. We redeemed that pledge. The subscription list increased by all of the prominent physicians, chemists, and connoisseurs, as possessing all of those intrinsic medicinal qualities (tonic and diuretic) which belong to an OLD and PURE Gin. Put up in quart bottles and sold by all druggists, grocers, &c.
